On January 17, 2025, at approximately 0315 hours, Montgomery County Police Corporal LANGLEY discovered a male, deceased, inside a vehicle at the intersection of Shady Grove Road and Research Boulevard in Rockville, Montgomery County, Maryland. The driver (and sole occupant) of the vehicle was subsequently identified as Marcell HEBRON (B/M, DOB: 06/13/1998). Also on January 17, 2025, at approximately 0730 hours, Montgomery County and Rockville City Police were dispatched to a call for a DOA on Research Court, also in Rockville, Montgomery County, Maryland. Upon arriving police discovered a female, later identified as Leilani MARROQUIN (W/F, DOB: 0/20/1997), deceased in the parking lot. There were multiple shell casings found scattered throughout the parking lot and MARROQUIN was suffering from what appeared to be multiple gunshot wounds. MARROQUIN was pronounced dead on the scene.

identified as Kaloyan STOEV (W/M, DOB: 07/08/1999) and had checked into the hotel on Research Court on January 16, 2025, with an anticipated check out on January 20, 2025. According to hotel staff STOEV left, abruptly, around 0530 hours on January 17, 2025, carrying a duffle bag and backpack and was sweating profusely.

Video surveillance obtained by police depict who police believed to be STOEV running from the area of Shady Grove Road where HEBRON was discovered towards the Research Court hotel around the time HEBRON's body was discovered.

While police were investigating at both scenes, STOEV returned to the Research Court hotel and was recognized by staff who alerted police of STOEV's return. STOEV was carrying a backpack and wearing the same clothing as in the previously referenced videos. STOEV was taken into custody and transported to Police Headquarters where he provided investigators with a statement advising that he had made arrangements to buy 2 ounces of marijuana from HEBRON, who he has known for twelve (12) years.

According to STOEV, he walked out of the hotel and got into the backseat of HEBRON's vehicle around 0300 hours and advising that HEBRON was in the driver's seat and that a female friend of HEBRON (MARROQUIN) was in the front passenger seat. STOEV advised he was carrying a .40 caliber ghost gun when he entered HEBRON's vehicle. STOEV stated that HEBRON pulled a gun from his own waistband when STOEV got into the car, at which time STOEV advised he pulled the .40 caliber ghost gun from his own waistband and began firing at HEBRON. STOEV advised he then observed MARROQUIN retrieve a gun from the glove box area of the car as he was exiting the rear seat. STOEV advised he fired several shots at MARROQUIN and observed her fall to the parking lot. STOEV indicated he checked on MARROQUIN and believed her to be dead at which time he took her phone and discarded it into some bushes at a nearby hotel in order to secrete it from police. STOEV then entered the driver's seat of HEBRON's vehicle, sitting on top of HEBRON (whom he believed to be dead), as he drove the vehicle from the parking lot of the Research Court hotel to the area of Shady Grove Road and Research Boulevard where STOEV reported the vehicle stopped moving. Although STOEV had planned to hide the vehicle in a wooded area, he advised he abandoned it at the intersection due to its mechanical failure. STOEV advised he returned to the hotel (as captured on the video) after abandoning the vehicle. It was after STOEV's return to the hotel that he advised he had dropped a handgun from his person onto the floor of the breakfast area as previously mentioned and reported by the hotel employee.

STOEV advised he left the hotel and went to the nearby Home Depot, returning several hours later to attempt to gather his things from his hotel room. STOEV was carrying a .40 caliber ghost gun in his backpack, along with a 9 mm semi-automatic handgun when stopped by police.

Based on the aforementioned facts and circumstances your Affiant believes probable cause exists to charge Kaloyan STOEV with the following:
